

In partnership with the

Victoria Against Violence – 16 Days of Activism campaign, Women with Disabilities Victoria would like to invite you to

FREE & EQUAL

A Celebration of Women with Disabilities

The event includes:

- Presentation of the biennial Brenda Gabe Leadership Award
- Performances to challenge negative attitudes and myths about women with disabilities by special guests Heidi Everett, Elizabeth Shanta, Leah van Poppel and Alex Holland
- Introduction of her new children's book questioning gender stereotypes, Some Girls, by Nelly Thomas
- Showcase of resources recently developed by WDV to prevent violence and empower women with disabilities.

When: Thursday 30 November 2017 at 2:30pm for a 3:00pm start
(event concludes at 5:00pm)

Where: Queen Victoria Women's Centre,
Level 4, 210 Lonsdale Street, Melbourne

You can register through EventBrite

<https://free-and-equal.eventbrite.com.au>

or by phoning 9286 7800 by Monday 20 November.

Please advise us of any accessibility and/or dietary requirements.