

Enabling Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Women Leadership Program Footscray 2017

Are you a woman who sees their disability as a strength?

Are you a migrant woman whose first language is not English?

Are you a woman who takes on life's challenges?

The Enabling Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Women Leadership Program is an exciting free opportunity for culturally diverse and migrant women with disabilities to come together, share their lived experiences and support each other to develop a strong sense of leadership within their community.

This program is a safe environment that respects and welcomes women of all cultures and abilities.

This program will give you:

- Leadership skills
- Confidence
- Connections with other women
- Information about your rights
- Embracing your culture
- Learning with fun
- Self esteem

The program runs every Monday over 6 weeks. These dates are:

4th September 2017

11th September 2017

18th September 2017

25th September 2017

2nd October 2017

9th October 2017 and graduation on

16th October 2017

The program is open to culturally diverse and migrant women with disabilities living in Melbourne's Inner West Region.

The program will be run in Footscray at Maribyrnong City Council

If you are interested in the program, it is strongly encouraged to come and attend the information session to find out more about the program and have the opportunity to ask questions.
